Sir, I am a broken officer; I was cashiered at the head of the army, for a coward, so I took up the trade of murder, to retrieve the reputation of my courage. 3 Bra. I am a soldier too, and would serve my king; but I don t like the quarrel, and I have more honour than to fight in a bad cause. 2 Bra. I was bred a gentleman, and have no estate; but I must have my whore and my bottle, through the prejudice of education. J Bra. I am a ruffian too; by the prejudice of education, I was born a butcher.--In short, sir, if your wine had come, we might have trifled a little...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
