Her father, the King of Parusia, was a jolly and happy man that was in good spirits most of the time. In fact, his laugh was heard by both the staff of palace workers and the peasants that lived in the surrounding village. It was understood by all the inhabitants of the land that the king was always happy until he ever received word that someone in his kingdom had not told the truth. When he learned of someone lying, or not telling the truth, the king became very sad. About Alexa Jade Appleton: Each night Alexa Jade Appleton is softly sent to bed by the words of her mother. As she drifts to sleep she enters a dreamland of various situations that teach her valuable life lessons. At the end of each scenario, Alexa awakens back into her world of reality, yet a changed person as a result of what she learned.
