Dept. of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Office of Prices and Living Conditions, 2001 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)226694356 Subject: College costs -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 95, for ease of exposition, we report summary statistics for only the most recent year (table 2) and means for all years (table 3). Our analysis sample includes only 4-year colleges that reported non-zero enrollment and expenditures with at least 20 of the student body undergraduates, following Winston (1999). In addition, they must have a Carnegie classification and must be located in the 50 U. S. states or 12 Washington DC. Like Winston, we exclude Specialized Schools as well; Appendix I 13 describes these and the other Carnegie classifications. There are missing values for particular data elements in some observations. In addition observations may be missing for a particular school in a particular year for a variety of reasons. Most straightforward is that a college may have failed to return the data in a given year. Colleges have an incentive to provide data, since the College Board provides that data to high school seniors shopping for schools, however, that incentive may be more important for some schools than others. Alternatively, a school may enter or exit because they fail to meet the criteria for inclusion in the sample - schools offering only a two-year degree in the early part of the study period may have offered a four year degree in the end, thus entering the sample. Or, schools may have exited the 4-year market. This entry and exit is infrequent in terms of the number of students served by these schools. Given the missing...
