Sarah W. Capron, Only Daughter of the Late Charles S. Capron, of Uxbridge, Who Died Oct; 12, 1840, Aged 17 Truly may it be said, that they were affectionate and lovely in their lives, and in their deaths they were not divided. It is not my purpose to give a full history of the life and character of our much respected and lamented aged friend, Mrs. Adams. Her life was, in many respects, an eventful one, and, if fully and correctly written, would make an interesting and instructive volume. She was born on the 5th of December, 1767. Her father, the late James Greene, of Providence, R. I., was, for many years, a much esteemed and beloved deacon in the church in that city, now under the pastoral charge of Rev. Edward B. Hall. Her earliest associations were with the intelligent, the benevolent, the good. To these early associations, in connexion with parental instruction and example, may be traced, under God, her early and, through life, uninterrupted reverence for religion and its institutions - the singular purity and refinement of feeling and character, which she always possessed and exhibited - her love of reading and of knowledge, and her delight, until her last moments, in the society of the wise and good.
