This arises in a great measure from the rubrics added on to the text at a later date, probably in the nineteenth dynasty; and also to the esoteric, or magical invocations, which (by the same principle as the secreta in the Roman Missal) were ordered to be said privately by the embalmer on behalf of the deceased, and by the soul itself before the Hadean deities. In process of time these glosses and rubrics became confused with the Ritual, and by the ignorance of the Egyptian scribes, who had lost the knowledge of the sacred language they copied.f The confusion is thus rendered now almost inextricable. To make this apparent, a few sentences from the chapter shall here follow. The soul speaks, as before, sometimes in the third person, or else in the character of each of the principal divinities, by hypostatic union. The rubrics are here italicised, and the glosses printed in capitals. I am the great God creating himself. It Is Water oa Nu, Who is The Father Of The Gods. Let him explain it. I am yesterday pre-existent eternity. I know the morning future eternity. Let Mm explain it. Yesterday Is Osiris, The Morning The Son. The day on which are strangled the deriders of the universal lord. Soul of the Sun is his name I Begotten by Himself is his name! Let him explain it. I am the soul in two halves. Let Mm explain it. The Soul In...
