Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.An excerpt from the PREFACE: I HAVE been asked by the authors of this book to write a Preface to it, and I have no hesitation in responding to such a reasonable request. I do so with all the more pleasure because, in my opinion, the matters treated of in this book are of the very greatest practical importance to the baking trade. The baker, so far as the ordinary varieties of bread are concerned, differs from most other manufacturers in not being able to expect any increased demand for the goods which he supplies. The growing prosperity of the country - and we have increased enormously in wealth during the last twenty or thirty years - has led to a largely increased demand for most commodities, and the manufacturers of those commodities have had with them all along the great advantage of an expanding market. With the baker, so far as household bread is concerned, the case is entirely different. Exact figures are unfortunately wanting, but there is no doubt that the per capita consumption of bread...
