After serving several years in the United States Marine Corps, Sergeant Tucker Patton decides to hang up his uniform and go to work at a private investigative firm owned by his buddy. His boxes are packed and he s got one foot out the door when a phone call changes everything. Instead of going to North Carolina, he heads to New York City to literally step into the life of his twin brother, who died under suspicious circumstances. But pretending to be someone else isn t easy. Especially when the person you re supposed to be is wanted dead. Not only that, but he s going from being blissfully single to living with his brother s woman. An uptight, no-nonsense lawyer. Charlotte Rose Carter doesn t have time for fun and games. She graduated with honors and made all the right moves fresh out of college to jumpstart her career as a successful young lawyer. She even snagged the most eligible bachelor in New York City s corporate world. So what if her and Max s relationship isn t burning up the sheets? So what if their life doesn t read like a chapter from a sizzling romance novel? This is the real world, and in the real world that stuff is just fantasy. Until it isn t. Suddenly, just the slightest touch or a single glance from Max has her heart doing somersaults. Suddenly, the lackluster relationship begins to spark, and Charlotte finds herself tied in a knot of desire. But she has no idea about the tricks being played right under her perky little nose.
